

Promoting Resilient Children Program Update

PRC Advisory Committee
April 27, 2010

Promoting
Resilient Children Program

Agenda

- Welcome and Introductions
- New CRYC Chair- Shana Trent
- PRC Expansion in Clermont County
- Program Highlight- Use of New Data - Nicole Johnson

Agenda

- Evaluation Update
- Strive Endorsement
- Community Collaboration and Training
- Next Steps

Follow Up

- Complete training materials to support expansion
- Refine tracking systems for intensive level services
- Identify phase III level programs to use as an observation model

Welcome Child Focus

Expansion in Clermont County

Berta Velilla

Laura Stith

Julie Hermann

Program Highlight

Welcome Nicole Johnson

Young Child Institute

PRC Infant Toddler Specialist

Program Highlight

Strive Endorsement

- Hamilton County Success by 6 Student Success Network
- Phase 1 of Strive Endorsement

Evaluation Update

- Fall 2009 Pre-Test Results
 - 1,070 DECAs
 - 157 Infant
 - 175 Toddler
 - 738 Preschool

Evaluation Update

Fall 2009 DECA: Percent of Children (n=1070)*	Strength	Typical	Concern
Initiative	16.00%	67.90%	16.20%
Self Control (n=913)*	17.10%	66.70%	16.20%
Attachment	14.90%	70.30%	14.90%
Total Protective Factors	15.10%	68.10%	16.70%
Behavior Concerns (n=738)*		78.60%	21.40%

Evaluation Update

Improvement from T1 to T3 (n=202)	Demonstrated Improvement	Significantly Improved (of those that improved)
Initiative	59.9% (121)	47.11% (57)
Self Control	53.96% (109)	52.29% (57)
Attachment	39.1% (79)	41.77% (33)
Total Protective Factors	54.95% (111)	45.94% (51)
Behavior Concerns	49% (99)	30.3% (30)

Evaluation Update

- Year-End Results to Date:
 - 850 (79%) of children retained from pre- to post-test
 - 89% of infants and toddlers
 - 75% of preschoolers

Teacher Efficacy

- 40 teachers completed from 21 centers
- Surveyed teacher confidence: “I can make a difference in the lives of children”:
 - Pre assessment 85%
 - Post assessment 100%

Teacher Efficacy

- 100% would recommend ECMH Services
- 92% said that consultation positively impacted their choice to stay in their current position

Community Collaboration

- Community training for non-PRC centers:
 - Classroom Management Through Reflective Practice
 - Understanding and Helping Young Children Cope with the Stressors of Child Care

Community Collaboration

- Child Welfare League of America
- Technical Assistance Group- 4C
- Cincinnati Union Bethel and CAA
Mental Health Consultants

Community Collaboration

- Kindergarten Readiness with United Way and Success by Six
- The Ohio Professional Development Network
 - Core Knowledge and Competencies for Administrators Document

Community Collaboration

Cincinnati AEYC

“Week of the Young Child”
Teacher Event

Week of the Young Child

Week of the Young Child

Training

THE DEVEREUX EARLY CHILDHOOD INITIATIVE

PRC Expansion

- CRYC Partnership Increase
- 3-5 new programs pending
- Funding research
- Alignment in the state
- Clinician for DECA-C
- Infant /Toddler Expansion
- CRYC Operations Committee

Director Luncheon

- Report Outcomes
- Support for how to share DECA results with families
- Celebrate success stories
- Present the CLASS (Classroom Assessment Scoring System)

A decorative graphic on the left side of the slide consisting of two overlapping yellow circles of different shades, with the larger one in the foreground.

Website Update

<http://www.resilientchildren.org/>